Monday, September 17, 2018 – 5:30 P.M.

Council Chambers – Brecksville City Hall

Members Present: Gerald Broski, Darryl Mancini, Joe Fleming, Jim Steiger, John Guardado

Members Absent: Gene Lustik, Myrah Santos

The meeting began at 5:30 p.m. with the pledge of allegiance. The first order of business was the commission approval of minutes from the June 11, 2018 meeting.

New Business

There was no new business at this time.

Customer Complaints

The Commission requested the recording secretary to ask Myrah Santos if she followed up on the complaint from the June 11 meeting. The complaint was from Robert Haynes who resides at 12118 Glen Valley Drive. Mr. Haynes' complaint was he couldn't get AT&T to come out and repair his home phone. The commission then stated that the other complaints from the previous meeting have been resolved.

Franchise Fees

The commission reviewed the 2nd quarter fees for 2018 and determined that fees showed an increase from last year.

Open Forum

Councilman Broski spoke briefly about a few current events in the City such as the VA property has been turned over the DiGeronimo Development. The police station is ahead of schedule and may open at the end of the year. The new elementary school will be built on the Blossom property. The city has a new fire truck. Councilman Broski also spoke in detail regarding the situation with the Four Seasons Development and the County. The McDonald's is up for sale again. The Cleveland Clinic will be occupying a space over in the Creekside shopping area.

Lastly, the remaining meeting for the year is scheduled for November 19th.

With no further business to discuss the meeting adjourned at 6:25 p.m. Motion to adjourn by Gerald Broski. Seconded by Darryl Mancini.
