Proposal: IdentityIQ™ benefits offered through City of Brecksville

Serena Devito

February 22, 2021

SITUATION

City of Brecksville is a government agency who will be offering their employees a paid employee benefit package, that will cover identity theft protection and credit monitoring services.

THE MESSAGE

- Greater than 33% of U.S. adults have experienced identity theft
- A shift in consumer financial and retail habits online has caused an ever-growing amount of personally identifiable information (PII) placed into the hands of businesses
- Rapid enterprise migration to the cloud makes consumer data increasingly vulnerable
- Proliferation of mobile devices used in business-critical functions adds additional levels of exposure

A robust identity, credit monitoring and restoration service removes distractions so employees can experience less stress and give more focus to daily tasks.
